TERMINOLOGY

IMPORTANT NOTE This part is not a demand but an explanation of some terms used in the subpoena and some suggestions to help with compliance. The actual information demanded by this subpoena is set forth on the front of the subpoena or in Attachment A, if so indicated on the first page. The terms explained here may or may not be part of information demanded.

> If the subpoena makes a demand for "local and long distance connection records, or records of session times and durations" for telephone or cell phone service, that means to include the following records if your company maintains these records---

- Incoming and outgoing local, regional, long distance, international, wholesale, cellular, paging, toll free, and prepaid connection records;
- Credit card calls (including, but not limited to, calls made through major credit card companies); and
- Alternate billed number calls (calls billed to third parties, collect calls, and calling card calls for calls through cards issued by the communications carrier originating from the foregoing telephone number(s) or terminating at the foregoing telephone numbers(s)).

> If the subpoena makes a demand for "length of service," include the start date and the close date if the account closed.

> If the subpoena makes a demand for customer or subscriber address, include both the postal address and physical address, if known.

> If the subpoena makes a demand for "means and source of payment" that means--

- Method of payment to initiate and maintain service; and
- Any available identification numbers for method of payment, including credit card numbers or prepaid calling card numbers.

> We are not directing that you provide, and you should not provide, information pursuant to this subpoena that would disclose the content of any wire communication. That means you should not disclose "any information concerning the substance, purport, or meaning of" a communication, as defined in Title 18 United States Code, Section 2510(8). Subject lines of e-mails are content information and should not be provided in response to this subpoena.

> If the records provided are particularly large we request that you provide this information in electronic format preferably on a CD-ROM.
